

District Summary:

There are 15 schools with 39,170 students and a total budget of $24,649,428.00. The average Math Score is 78.985371, and the average Reading Score is 81.87784, indicating that the students have a good average Reading score and higher passing % in Reading compared to Math.

School Summary:

There are two types of schools, District and Charter. The district schools have a greater number of students compared to Charter schools, but it has a lesser % Passing in Math. By contrast, Charter school has a good Average score in both Math and Reading.

Conclusions or Comparisons:

1. In Math and Reading, charter schools did better than district schools;
2. The smaller and medium sizes of schools did better than larger schools in Math;
3. Schools that spent less per student (<$585) produced better results overall.